"When the task of acquiring the crane was undertaken, we promised ourselves that as soon as we had the crane we would take a few minutes and celebrate with every one of our employees, because after all, it's through the dedication and hard work of every one of us that this launch into the future is made possible," Geri Ganske, COO of MIW, stated.

The Port of Calcite Collaborative (PCC) is a Great Lakes Commerce and Service Port. This public-private deep water port provides space and equipment to facilitate shipping activities as well as vessel services.

Ductwork Project Update

Bill Hartig, Project Manager for the 3,300 Ton Ductwork Project, states that MIW is 71% complete for the first 2013 barge project shipment. Staying on schedule for the 24 month fabrication deadline.

Pure Michigan Business Connect

Mackinac Island was the setting for the “Pure Michigan Business Connect” (PMBC) conference attended by Thomas Moran (Founder/President), Marilyn Kapp (Public Relations), Gerald Ganske (Chief Operating Officer) and Gerald’s wife Peggy Ganske.

Governor Snyder started the ceremony with a definition of what “Pure Michigan Business Connect” is, “Good common sense”, “Neighbors helping neighbors”, he then introduced Jerry Anderson from DTE Energy and John Russell from Consumers Energy, of which both announced their companies will be contributing 1 Billion dollars each toward hiring Michigan based companies in the next five years. Moran Iron Works has benefited from the PMBC program by being a supplier to both DTE & Consumers Energy.

“For us at MIW what is important is the number of citizens we have put to work with the help of this initiative”, said Thomas Moran (President MIW). In 2013 “Pure Michigan Business Connect” added a major automotive company, a University and two large financial institutions’ to join in with the cognitive action needed to move Michigan forward. Moran Iron Works is also a new 2013 PMBC partner.
